

Notice to Consumers

According to section 2936 of the California Business and Professions Code, all psychology licensees and registrants must post a notice in their office informing consumers how to contact the Board of Psychology regarding any questions and comments. The notice reads as follows:

NOTICE TO CONSUMERS: The Department of Consumer Affairs' Board of Psychology receives and responds to questions and complaints regarding the practice of psychology. If you have questions or complaints you may contact the Board on the Internet at <http://www.psychboard.ca.gov> , by calling 1-866-503-3221, or by writing to the following address:

Board of Psychology
1422 Howe Avenue, Ste 22
Sacramento, CA 95825-3236

This notice should be posted in English and any other language(s) spoken during the course of treatment. To obtain a copy of this notice, contact the Board of Psychology at (916) 263-2699, or to receive a printable version, go to www.psychboard.ca.gov, click on Consumer Information, and then click on Notice to Consumers.

Additional HIPAA Compliant Office Forms

Additional HIPAA compliant office forms are available through the American Psychological Association. They offer a Continuing Education course that features the following:

A step-by-step guide to becoming HIPAA compliant

State-specific, customized compliance forms, policies and explanations

Online and CD-ROM versions

Continuing education credits

Discount on Trust-sponsored Professional Liability Insurance (when successfully completing the course and passing the exam).

To enroll in the course, go to <http://www.apapractice.org> and click on HIPAA Compliance, and then click on Course Information and Ordering Information. To contact APA with questions or concerns about enrolling in the course, call (800) 719-9846.